

The view from 47th Street.

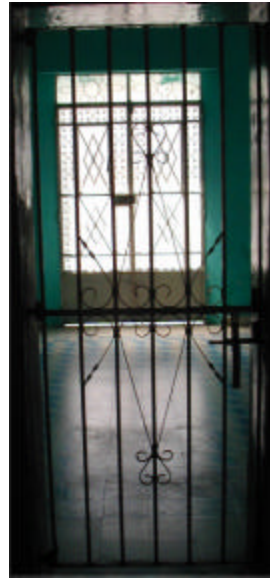

“Casa Hogar—La Santisima Trinidad” indicates that this was a home run by a holy one from Trinidad (i.e., a Trinidadian faith healer).

The medallion contains an image of Guadalupe.

Because the house is in a historic zone, the city historic commission must approve any changes to the façade. If we restore it to the original colonial style, the city will provide the labor (we provide materials).

Front room

Entryway

Floor tile in front room

Floor tile in entry, lr & front br

Entering the living room

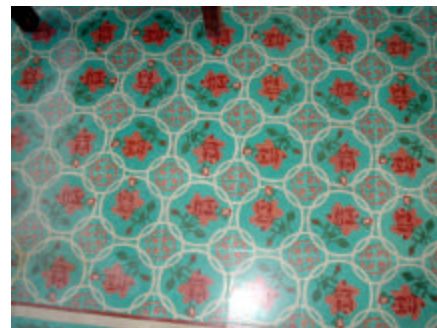

Living room

Doors from lr to kitchen & beyond

Kitchen and original door to patio

Floor tile in kitchen

Kitchen door to air shaft & view to rear bedroom

Rear bedroom

Floor tile in rear bedroom

Rear bathroom - site of future stairs & outdoor shower

Floor tile in rear bathroom

Path from rear bedroom to rear bathroom

Main bathroom, with shower before it was expanded to include the air shaft

Front bedroom (from living room)

Bedroom ceiling

Looking from front bedroom to porch area

Porch & yard from front bedroom

Dining & garden areas from porch

Pool site from dining area

The wall – future site of raised garden bed

Original door to rear bedroom

Garden & dining areas from pool site

Dining & porch areas.